How much power does a goodwe hybrid inverter produce?

The highest inverter output on the AC side is 29.9 kVA. A central mains and system protection is not required. The GoodWe high-voltage hybrid inverter has an integrated switch-over device for backup power supply. This enables the inverter to still supply the house with 3-phase emergency power in the event of a power outage.

Solar Trade offers a wide range of Hybrid Solar Inverters that are used for commercial, residential, and utility installations.
